OVERVIEW

To establish policy for the management of street raffles.

Many organisations both local, state wide and national rely on fund raising efforts, including raffles to assist in the provision of their services to their club, organisation or public. To achieve this end they request permission from Council to conduct raffles from Council controlled footpaths.

Council has designated areas in different townships throughout the Shire where groups are permitted to conduct such raffles.

THE POLICY

Raffles

Council may consent to community and charitable organisations selling raffle tickets in the commercial area of approved townships in line with the Street Raffle Policy and Community Local Laws 2021f Community Local Law 2021 , Schedule 4 form of indemnity.
