[GEORGE]

CAA understands that life is full of unexpected moments, and even in the most unprecedented of times comes an opportunity to find glimmers of humanity, compassion, and love. This song is inspired by the true story of my friends, Nick and Diane Marsen, who were both grounded right here in Gander. Nick's from Great Britain, and Diane's from Texas, but their shared experience here in Gander brought about a deep connection, and love. They were engaged within two months, and married the next year. The song, "Stop the World," is all about those lasting impressions. As you meet new people, and build new relationships, you'll find yourself seeing the world from a new perspective, and that's the true power of neighbourly spirit. CAA's Calling All Neighbours, in partnership with Mirvish Productions present "Stop the World."

[JAMES SINGING]

Stop the world

Take a picture

Try to capture to ensure this moment lasts

We're still in it

In a minute

That's the limit

And this present will be past

So here we are

Where the world has come together

So here she'll be

In this picture forever

[BARBARA SINGING]

Stop the world

Seize the moment

But the minute he goes, you're alone and it's through

Pinch yourself

Tell yourself you're just dreaming

That means he'll forget about you

But here we are

Where the continents once crashed together

Before they went their separate ways forever

So stop the world

[BOTH SINGING]
From spinning round
I want to look out
Overlooking something worth taking the time
To stop flying by and look down
Stopping to stare
And look 'round
Just tell them now
And look down
Take a picture of the scenery
Of a lookout, of a moment
Which is over, of the ocean
Of the river, of the trees
