[GEORGE]

This song is about female pilot, Beverley, the adversity that she faced through her career, and her ability to overcome it all is a reminder of the social progress we've made as a society. And that's something we should all be proud of. But with the current state of the world, this song can carry another very relevant message. Over the course of this pandemic, we've all been feeling grounded.

00:00:33:14 - 00:00:56:12

[GEORGE]

"Me And The Sky" recognizes the challenges and frustrations that we face as we stay home, stay grounded, and wait for better days ahead. As we approach the 20th anniversary of 9/11, we find the song that rings true again, now more than ever. CAA's Calling All Neighbours, in partnership with Mirvish Productions are proud to present "Me and the Sky."

American Airlines

Had the prettiest planes

So I applied as a flight engineer

But the World War II pilots, they all complained

They said, "Girls shouldn't be in the cockpit."

Hey, lady. Hey, baby, hey! Why don't you grab us a drink"

And the flight attendants weren't my friends back then

And they said, "Are you better than us, do you think?"

[ELIZA-JANE SINGING]

But I kept getting hired

And the World War II crew, they retired

And the girls all thought much higher of me

1986, the first female American captain in history

Suddenly I'm in the cockpit

Suddenly I've got my wings

Suddenly all of those pilots protested me

Well, they can get their own drinks

Suddenly there's no one saying, "Stay grounded"

Looking down, passing them by

Suddenly there's nothing in between me and the sky

Eliza-Jane continues to sing

00:02:15:11 - 00:02:58:17

[ELIZA-JANE SINGING]

Suddenly I've got an all female crew

The news talked, it made headlines across the world

Suddenly it stopped

No one saying, "You can't," or, "You won't"

Or, "You know you're not anything

'Cause you're a girl

Suddenly I'm getting married
And we're putting pins on the map where we've flown
Suddenly I am a mother
And suddenly shocked at how much they've grown
Suddenly I'm wondering how my parents would feel
Seeing me teaching men to be pilots
'Cause suddenly I am a senior instructor
And somehow I am 51

[ELIZA-JANE SINGING]
Suddenly I'm flying Paris to Dallas
Across the Atlantic and feeling calm
When suddenly someone on air to air traffic says
"At 8:46 there's been a terrorist action"
And the one thing I loved more than anything
Was used as the bomb
