Week One: The Principle of Generosity

1. Everything taught in the Bible on the topic of finances can be summed up with one, simple word:

_____.

2. In the form of a command, it becomes two words: _____.

“The generous will themselves be blessed, for they share their food with the poor.”

(Proverbs 22:9)

“I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.

They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be a blessing.”

(Psalm 37:25-26)

“Good will come to those who are generous and lend freely, who conduct their affairs with justice.”

(Psalm 112:5)

“Give and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.” (Luke 6:38)

“Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share.

In this way they will lay up treasures for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.” (1 Timothy 6:18-19)

“Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously...”

You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion...”

(2 Corinthians 9:6, 11a)

3. This truth is “_____”.

Today’s “Big Idea”...

What you _____ determines what you _____.

FAMILY MATTERS

Sympathy is extended to Terry, Sue, Teah and Mattias U-Ming on the passing of Sue’s mother.

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do you think of when you think of money and religion?
2. Why do we struggle with being generous with God? Or with others?
3. Name a time/place/person when someone was generous with you.
How did you know they were being generous with you?
4. Have you ever been generous with someone else? Why and how?
5. How will you be generous with God and others this week?
