You can easily withdraw your consent or opt-out from our e-marketing messages by clicking the "unsubscribe" link at the bottom of each marketing email.

You can also unsubscribe (opt-out) from our newsletters or change your personal preferences by contacting us at marketing@heliox-energy.com.

How we disclose or transfer your personal data

To the extent permissible by applicable laws and in line with this Privacy Notice, we may disclose your personal data:

- to Heliox Affiliated Companies, for purposes consistent with this Privacy Notice. We take precautions to limit the access to your personal data only to those staff members who have a legitimate business need to access it in accordance with the Privacy Notice;
- to our third-party services providers such as payment processing, IT services, website hosting, order fulfilment, infrastructure provision, security, auditing services and other services, to enable them to provide their services;
- to any competent law enforcement body, regulatory, government agency, court or other third party, such as without being limited to, the police authorities, the tax authorities, the social security authorities, when such transfer is necessary (i) as a matter of applicable law or regulation, (ii) to exercise, establish or defend our legal rights, (iii) to protect your vital interests or the ones of any other individual, or (iv) based on a court order;
- to our auditors, advisors, legal representatives and similar agents in connection with advisory services they provide to us for legitimate purposes and in accordance for the purposes described in this Privacy Notice;
- in the event that we, or any portion of our assets, are acquired, we may share all types of personal data with the acquiring company.

We do not transfer your personal data to third parties outside the EEA (European Economic Area) other than to Heliox Affiliated Companies, except in the following cases:

- you have explicitly consented to the transfer;
- the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between you and us or the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken at your request;
- the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in your interest between us and another natural or legal person;
- the transfer is necessary for important reasons of public interests;
- the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- the transfer is necessary in order to protect your vital interest or of other persons, where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent;
- when using standard EU model clauses; or
- when authorized by the data protection authority.

We always put adequate safeguards (European Commission or Standard Contractual Clauses) and take necessary measures to protect your personal data while transferring your personal data to the third parties within or outside EU or EEA.

How we protect your personal data

We take technical and organizational measures to adequately protect your personal data and to maintain its quality. We make improvements to this protection on an ongoing basis in line with technical progress. We use a range of physical, electronic and managerial measures to ensure that we keep your personal data secure.

7.

How long we keep your personal data

We retain your personal information for the period necessary to fulfil the purposes mentioned above:

- as long as you remain a Customer or a business stakeholder; or
- as long as you want to receive this information, newsletters and other promotional or marketing information from us. If you decide to opt-out of or withdraw your consent to our newsletters and other promotional or marketing information, we will no longer use your personal data for this purpose. We may however need to keep your personal data for another purpose (e.g. to carry out our customer relationship); or
- as long as the statutory limitation period to initiate a claim or legal action; or
- for a longer retention period if it is required or permitted by law (e.g. health and safety legislation, in case of a litigation).

How can you exercise your rights?

You have a number of rights under the applicable data protection laws.

Right to be informed	You have the right to be informed about how we process your personal data. This is the purpose of this Privacy Notice.
Right to access	You have the right to access your personal data and review your personal data.
Right to have you data erased	You have the right to have your personal data deleted.
Right to have your data corrected	You have the right to have your personal data to be corrected or updated.
The right to restrict data processing	You have the right to have your personal data to object or restrict its processing.
The right to data portability	You have the right to ask portability of your personal data and to receive your personal data in a structured, machine-readable format for your own purposes or to request to share it with a third party.
Right not to be subject to a decision based on an automated process	You have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on an automated process, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affect you.
