

Effective 1st of Dec 2020, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of RightBridge Ventures AB (“RBV”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Stefan L (“Mr. Lindeberg” or “Stefan”) as independent board member of RBV.

Stefan Lindeberg is a well-known profile in the Swedish startup and investment community. In a career spanning over 30 years, he has held senior roles at companies such as IBM, Cisco and Microsoft. Most notably, he co-funded Creandum, a major Swedish VC fund. He has proven boardroom leadership experience from companies such as Edgware, Transmode and Netnod, and in the gaming industry is serving on the board of game development studio such as Fatshark and Itatake.

“Stefan Lindeberg brings significant expertise to RBV. His drive and experience, and the fact that he was one of the factors behind the growth of one of Europe’s most successful tech investment companies, Creandum, will play a decisive role in the development of RBV ways of working to become a leading esports and gaming investment firm”, says Carlos Barrios, CEO of RightBridge Ventures AB.

Stefan Lindeberg

“I’m very thrilled to join the Board of RightBridge Ventures,” commented Mr. Lindeberg. “RightBridge Ventures is the first European esports and gaming venture capital firm to focus on esports and gaming as socio – economic platform of the 21st century. That focus, together with RBV listing roadmap, broadens up the access to the returns of the esports and gaming industry’s tremendous growth.”

ABOUT RightBridge Ventures AB

RightBridge Ventures is an investment firm focused on esports and gaming. RightBridge Ventures intends to become a listed vehicle that offers the possibility to invest in the global size and growth of the gaming and eSport markets and in the innovative entrepreneurship of Scandinavian scale - ups.

RightBridge intends to deliver top quartile results to RightBridge shareholders and contribute to shape the gaming and esports industries. For more information visit www.rightbridge.se or please contact:

Johan Rooth, Chairman at Johan.rooth@abelco.se

Carlos Barrios, CEO at carlos.barrios@rightbridge.se