WELCOME

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, Staff and Ensemble of Emmanuel Music, I extend a heartfelt welcome to you for this offering of the St. John Passion. We are grateful that you are with us and for the ways that you have supported us with generosity and enthusiasm.

As the seasons move toward the warmth of spring and we look to the prospect of a sense of normalcy in gathering after the last two years, we are all mindful that in the world there are elements of suffering and anguish. It is our hope at Emmanuel Music to offer moments of beauty, hope and togetherness through music that is made accessible to all.

With programs like our Evening Concert Series — whether a monumental oratorio by Bach or Handel or a dramatic production, semi-staged opera — our Chamber Music Festival, the Lindsey Chapel Series and the newly launched “Reflect with Bach” in partnership with the Boston Public Library, we invite everyone to join us in experiencing the art form and perhaps even for a brief moment be a part of joy found in music.

Executive Director Jaclyn Dentino and Artistic Director Ryan Turner, working with our talented artistic and administrative teams, continue to lead the way in crafting a programmatic offering that reflect the goals of the Strategic Plan adopted by the Board in March 2021. The robust offerings for engagement, education and enjoyment will continue through the remainder of this season with the acclaimed Bach Institute and the commissioning of new works as well as a glorious June concert with the celebrated pianist Simone Dinnerstein.

With all that we do, in all that we offer through Emmanuel Music, the desire is to Enrich, to Engage, to Inspire. Thank you for accepting the invitation to be with us on that journey.

Peace,

Dana Whiteside

What is a Passion?
A “Passion” is not a story about desire or strong emotion; rather it tells about suffering (“passion” is related to “passive,” as in enduring an assault). The Christian Church uses this word to refer to the events surrounding the arrest, condemnation, and Crucifixion of Jesus.

As part of the observances of Holy Week (the period that commemorates these events), Christians read the passages from the four Gospels that relate the story. Early musical settings of the Passion were mostly chanted by a narrator, with different singers portraying Jesus, Peter, Pilate, and other characters; a choir or the congregation might sing words attributed to groups of people like the soldiers or the populace. By the early 18th century, these narrative movements were enhanced by opening and closing choral movements; by the insertion of familiar chorales (hymns) at various points in the story, and eventually also by meditative movements for solo singers containing newly composed poetry (not Biblical texts).

What about Bach’s Passions?
Bach wrote the St. John Passion, his first complete Passion setting, in 1724, during his first year in Leipzig. He borrowed pieces of existing librettos for the arias and framing chorus texts, combining texts from different poets, some of whom are unknown to us. The quantity and placement of the arias was likely Bach’s decision, as was the choice of chorale verses and location. With no sacred music performed in the church during the six weeks of Lent, Bach had time to work on his first large-scale sacred composition.

How is a Bach Passion put together?
The Lutheran Passions were intended to be heard during the Good Friday service. Just as with the shorter weekly cantatas, they were positioned before and after the sermon given by the Rector. The St. John Passion divides into two parts; Part I narrates the events that occurred on Maundy Thursday (the arrest and betrayal of Peter), while the much longer Part II covers the story from the morning of Good Friday, when Jesus was brought before Pontius Pilate, through the Crucifixion itself and the burial of Jesus.

Why are there soloists who play roles, and soloists without character roles?
The major part of the Gospel narrative is delivered by a tenor soloist, called the Evangelist. His words are literally Biblical, even including the narrative connections “he said” “they replied” etc. Other soloists are assigned to sing the words of Jesus, Peter, Pilate, and various other speakers in the story; but the use of a narrator removes any sense of theatrical drama. All these figures sing in a speech-like style called “recitative” accompanied only by organ and cello.

When groups of people speak in the Gospel narrative, Bach creates choral movements; these are called “turba” choruses, or “crowd” choruses. These are brief but are accompanied by the full orchestra and often use elaborate contrapuntal techniques.

In contrast to the Biblical words sung by these various performers, Bach places stanzas of familiar Lutheran chorales, and full-scale aria movements for solo singers, as commentary on events just told. These movements voice contemporary Christians’ reactions to specific events. By interrupting the strict narrative, the chorales and arias underline the contemplative nature of the piece.

Why is Bach’s St. John Passion great? Why is it controversial?
The St. John Passion is a potent allegory of institutional corruption. A religious power structure that has lost touch with its founding principles becomes a collaborator with an occupying force, and marginalizes, then destroys, the reformer from within who speaks the truth and tries to bring the faith back to its roots. The High Priests are these perverted leaders of the community to which Jesus also belongs. Those in our age or any age who would set themselves up as possessors of moral truth and ethical standards should look in the mirror to determine if they, too, have turned aside from the values they purport to uphold.

In contrast with this political drama are the moments of individual or communal reflection. Bach’s placement of arias and chorales have the effect of slow motion or freeze frame; sincere reactions to events in the narrative that focus the attention on personal tragedy and suffering. Most vivid of all is the sequence of movements placed at the moment of Jesus’s death: Bach focuses on the overwhelming sense of grief and loss, taking us through the process in a sensitive and minute examination of this most human of experiences.

Perhaps this, then, is the ultimate reason the St. John Passion is so disturbing: Bach invests his mastery of color, harmony, and time into every scene, every action; in places it’s hard to look away even if the material reflects aspects of ourselves that we would rather avoid.

The St. John Passion invites us on a wild ride filled with turbulent anger, profound meditation, vicious irony, and intense grief. We undertake this journey because at each instant we recognize the humanity in the music; the repugnant aspects of our nature as well as the most elevated. This is the composer’s genius: to make us experience a universe of emotions in order to exorcise evil and embrace goodness.

ESSAY BY PAMELA DELLAL
St. John Passion

The Gospel of John, apparently the last of the four to be written (after 70 A.D.) is very different from the three synoptic gospels. It presents a transcendent, mystical, philosophical Jesus, aware of the Old Testament prophecies and of his fate as a sojourner who came from above and will soon return there. According to John, Jesus warns his followers that their eventual persecution will mirror his, and that it will come from their own: “they shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.” (16:2, used by Bach as a text in Cantata BWV 44).

The Gospel of John, as it enters the Passion narrative, mutes Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem. Absent are the “multitudes” mentioned in the other gospels. It then transcribes a three chapter long instruction to the disciples, delivered after the Passion Supper, that moves between the terrifying realities of a hostile world and the rapture of the world to come. These chapters, all of which precede the beginning of the St. John Passion text, hover over Bach’s composition. With Chapter Eighteen, the tone of John’s narrative shifts to reportage, stark details, urgent pacing, stories intercut like film, threads dropped and quickly picked up. And we notice the recurrent labeling of “the Jews” (rather than, as in the other gospels, “they,” “the crowd,” “the people”) as the enemies of Christ. This is, at best, paradoxical, since Jesus and his followers conceived of themselves as thoroughly within Judaism, and since Jesus’ thought moves not only away from but also radically back toward the Law (“Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law,” John 7:19). By attempting to transform Jesus and his followers into non-Jews, the book of John becomes a path to the racial caricatures in medieval passion plays, Hitler-era posters, and even a recent popular motion picture.

Many mistakenly believe that the author of the last Gospel was the Apostle John, referred to throughout as “the apostle whom Jesus loved.” Others, because of the author’s demonization of the Jews, believe him instead to be a radical Gentile convert. It is more likely that he was a Jew who initially expected, as did the early followers generally, that most adherents would come from within Judaism, and who was bitterly disappointed when that did not happen. It is interesting to remember that one of the principals in the Passion narrative, Peter, the first Pope, emerges in Acts as the staunchest advocate of keeping the movement strictly within Jewish practice, losing out in early church councils to the proselytizing instincts of Paul.

In performing the piece, and other Bach works based on John (for example, Cantata BWV 42 that begins with the fearful apostles in hiding after the crucifixion), it is valuable to try to understand something about the attitudes of both author and composer. What is Bach’s stance?

He is certainly of his time and place. He sets an inflammatory Reformation Sunday Luther text with vehemence in Cantata BWV 126. “Deliver us, Lord, by your Word from the Pope’s control and the Turk’s murders.” In the texts from John, he goes where they take him, more with the instincts of a dramatist than an ideologue. In the Passion, he invests fully in both the fierce irony of “Hail to thee, King of the Jews,” by means of a perversion of the most elegant eighteenth-century dance form, the minuet, and in the extraordinarily pliant tenderness of Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus when they come to bury Jesus “according to Jewish custom,” where the Gospel writer suddenly reminds us that these events all transpired in the context of Jewish observance.

“About suffering they were never wrong, the Old Masters,” says Auden in his poem “Musée des Beaux Artes.” And in an era when we confront Torture as national policy, we must engage with Torture as part of this narrative. The recent movie previously cited reminds us that much of our modern artistic sensibility is numbingly literal-minded. Bach seeks metaphors, and never merely the mimetic, for the extremes depicted here. With the help of the strangely lurid aria texts, he forces us to look into our own inner abyss and suggests this might be the consequence of such a close view of the unthinkable.

About suffering they were never wrong, the Old Masters:
how well they understood its human position;
how it takes place while someone else is eating or opening a window …

Auden cites the obliviousness to suffering of the ploughman in Breugel’s Icarus, going about his business unaware of the distant splash. Auden might have just as easily mentioned the three aristocratic men conversing in the foreground of Piero Della Francesca’s Flagellation, or the uninterrupted musicians of Donatello’s Salome. Bach’s gambling soldiers, gaily dominating the sonic foreground, are part of that tradition. As they shake their dice (in phrases fourteen measures long!) we are struck by how tenaciously the composer locks onto the smallest details. The wood-fire the high priest’s servants name – they haunt because they are so actual. The name, Malchus, the very specific weather report, the anxious interjections: “and his witness is true,” “we tell you this so you can believe” – these are peculiar to John’s narrative, and Bach refuses to present them as asides.

But two climactic elements that Bach includes in the Saint John Passion are missing from the narrative in the Book of John: Peter’s penitent weeping, and the earthquake marking Jesus’ death. Bach borrowed them from Matthew. In his third version of the piece, with Scriptural scruples, he takes them out. Then in the fourth version (this performance), the dramatist prevails, and they are back in. The multiple versions (there is also an incomplete fifth version) speak of the composer’s difficulties in venturing upon such a large-scale project. The magnificent second version, which introduces three elaborate chorale-prelude style pieces into the structure, represents the most drastic re-conception. After reassigning large portions of it to the Saint Matthew Passion and Cantata BWV 23, Bach moves back toward his first, tighter conception, a series of cantata-like scenes, usually concluded by “simple” chorale settings, the whole framed by madrigal choruses.
The strangely haunted character of the opening chorus suggests the anxiety of the disciples immediately after the crucifixion (Crucifixion: an ignominious and unexpected ending not yet illumined by Resurrection). If before hearing it, we read this text by an unknown author (perhaps the composer), would we guess the desperate quality of this setting? The final lullaby-chorus, its cascading bass patters so similar to the conclusion of the Saint Matthew Passion of a few years later, but less able to suggest closure, asks for punctuation in the form of a chorale end-stop—tensions and ambiguities that remain unresolved even by an epilogue upon an epilogue.

PROGRAM NOTES BY JOHN HARBISON
Emmanuel Music is your place to discover and take a deep dive into some of the most transcendent and enduring music ever written. Whether you’re a first-time listener, a musician, or a scholar, Emmanuel Music offers meaningful opportunities to engage with the works of Bach and composers he inspired.

Engagement at Emmanuel Music is built around participatory activities connected to our mission of exploring the human experience through the lens of Bach. This season, we are delving into the emotional landscape of Bach’s cantatas with our Cantata Conversations series led by Pamela Dellal. Our Cantata Reflections project invites people to share what is personally poignant to them about the music programmed for our Cantata Series, with the goal of hearing from everyone from newcomers to seasoned listeners. And our Musical Sanctuary series places a musician in the sanctuary once a week (Thursdays 11.00am-1.00pm) to create a place of reflection and solace for our neighbors and other communities who use the church and might not otherwise be able to experience the power of live music.

Herr, unser Herrscher, dessen Ruhm
In allen Landen herrlich ist!
Zeig uns durch deine Passion,
Daß du, der wahre Gottessohn,
Zu aller Zeit,
Auch in der größten Niedrigkeit,
Verherrlicht worden bist!

2a. Evangelist
Jesus ging mit seinen Jüngern über den Bach
Kidron, da war ein Garte, darein ging Jesus und seine Jünger. Judas aber, der ihn verriet, wußte den Ort auch, denn
Jesus versammlete sich oft daselbst mit seinen Jüngern. Da nun Judas zu sich hatte genommen die Schar und der Hohenpriester und Pharisäer Diener, kommt er dahin mit Facheln, Lampen und mit Waffen. Als nun
Jesus wußte alles, was ihm begegnen sollte,
ging er hinaus und sprach zu ihnen:

Jesus
Wen suchet ihr?

Evangelist
Sie antworteten ihm:

2b. Chor
Jesum von Nazareth.

2c. Evangelist
Jesus spricht zu ihnen:

Jesus
Ich bin's.
Evangelist
Judas aber, der ihn verriet, stund auch bei ihnen. Als nun Jesus zu ihnen sprach: Ich bin's, wichen sie zurück und fielen zu Boden. Da fragete er sie abermal:

Jesus
Wen suchet ihr?

Evangelist
Sie aber sprachen:

2d. Chor
Jesum von Nazareth.

2e. Evangelist
Jesus antwortete:

Jesus
Ich hab's euch gesagt, daß ich's sei, suchet ihr denn mich, so lasset diese gehen!

3. Choral
O große Lieb, o Lieb ohn alle Maße, Die dich gebracht auf diese Marterstraße! Ich lebte mit der Welt in Lust und Freuden, Und du mußt leiden.
("Herzliebster Jesus, was hast du verbrochen," verse 7)

4a. Evangelist
Auf daß das Wort erfüllet würde, welches er sagte: Ich habe der keine verloren, die du mir gegeben hast. Da hatte Simon Petrus ein Schwert und zog es aus und schlug nach des Hohenpriesters Knecht und hieb ihm sein recht Ohr ab; und der Knecht hieß Malchus. Da sprach Jesus zu Petro:

Jesus
Stecke dein Schwert in die Scheide! Soll ich den Kelch nicht trinken, den mir mein Vater gegeben hat?

Evangelist
Judas, however, who betrayed him, stood also with them. Now when Jesus said to them: I am he, they drew back and fell to the ground. Then he asked them again:

Jesus
Whom do you seek?

Evangelist
They said, however:

2d. Chorus
Jesus of Nazareth.

2e. Evangelist
Jesus answered:

Jesus
I have told you, that I am he, if you seek me, then let these go!

3. Chorale
O great love, O love beyond measure, that brought you to this path of martyrdom! I lived with the world in delight and joy, and you had to suffer.

4a. Evangelist
So that the word might be fulfilled, which he spoke: "I have lost none that you have given to me." Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it out and struck at the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear; and the servant’s name was Malchus. Then Jesus said to Peter:

Jesus
Put your sword in its sheath! Shall I not drink the cup, which my Father has given to me?
5. Choral

Dein Will gescheh, Herr Gott, zugleich
Auf Erden wie im Himmelreich.
Gib uns Geduld in Leidenszeit,
Gehorsam sein in Lieb und Leid;
Wehr und steur allem Fleisch und Blut,
Das wider deinen Willen tut!
(“Vater unser im Himmelreich,” verse 4)

5. Chorale

Your will be done, Lord God, likewise on earth as in heaven.
Grant us patience in time of sorrow,
to be obedient in love and suffering;
check and guide all flesh and blood that acts contrary to your will!

6. Evangelist

Die Schar aber und der Oberhauptmann und die Diener der Jüden nahmen Jesum und bunden ihn und führten ihn aufs erste zu Hannas, der war Kaiphas Schwäher, welcher des Jahres Hoherpriester war. Es war aber Kaiphas, der den Juden riet, es wäre gut, daß ein Mensch würde
umbracht für das Volk.

6. Evangelist

The band, however, and the captain and the servants of the Jews took Jesus and bound him and led him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. It was Caiaphas, however, who counselled the Jews, that it would be good for one man to be destroyed for the people.

7. Arie A (Deborah Rentz-Moore)

Von den Stricken meiner Sünden
Mich zu entbinden,
Wird mein Heil gebunden.
Mich von allen Lasterbeulen
Völlig zu heilen,
Läßt er sich verwunden.

7. Aria A

To untie me
from the knots of my sins,
my Savior is bound.
To completely heal me
of all blasphemous sores,
he allows himself to be wounded.

8. Evangelist

Simon Petrus aber folgete Jesu nach und ein ander Jünger.

8. Evangelist

Simon Peter however followed after Jesus with another disciple.

9. Arie S (Kristen Watson)

Ich folge dir gleichfalls mit freudigen Schritten
Und lasse dich nicht.
Mein Leben, mein Licht.
Befördre den Lauf,
Und höre nicht auf,
Selbst an mir zu ziehen, zu schieben,
zu bitten.

9. Aria S

I follow you likewise with happy steps
and do not leave you,
my Life, my Light.
Pursue your journey,
and don’t stop,
continue to draw me on, to push me,
to urge me.
10. Evangelist

Derselbige Jünger war dem Hohenpriester bekannt und ging mit Jesu hinein in des Hohenpriesters Palast. Petrus aber stand draußen für der Tür. Da ging der andere Jünger, der dem Hohenpriester bekannt war, hinaus und redete mit der Türküberin und führte Petrum hinein. Da sprach die Magd, die Türküberin, zu Petro:

Magd

Bist du nicht dieses Menschen Jünger einer?

Evangelist

Er sprach:

Petrus

Ich bin's nicht.

Evangelist

Es stunden aber die Knechte und Deiner und hatten ein Kohlfeuer’ gemacht (denn es war kalt) und wärmeten sich. Petrus aber stand bei ihnen und wärmete sich. Aber der Hohepriester fragte Jesum um seine Jünger und um seine Lehre. Jesus antwortete ihm:

Jesus

Ich habe frei, öffentlich geredet für der Welt. Ich habe allezeit gelehret in der Schule und in dem Tempel, da alle Juden zusammenkommen, und habe nichts im Verborgenen geredet. Was fragest du mich darum? Frage die darum, die gehöret haben, was ich zu ihnen geredet habe! Siehe, dieselbigen wissen, was ich gesaget habe.

10. Evangelist

This same disciple was known to the high priest and went inside with Jesus in the high priest’s palace. Peter however stood outside at the door. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went outside and spoke with the girl guarding the door and brought Peter inside. Then the maid, the doorkeeper, said to Peter:

Maid

Aren’t you one of this man’s disciples?

Evangelist

He said:

Evangelist

However the soldiers and servants stood around and they had made a coal fire (for it was cold) and warmed themselves. Peter however stood with them and warmed himself. But the high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about his teachings. Jesus answered him:

Jesus

I have freely and openly spoken before the world. I have taught all the time in the synagogue and in the temple, where all Jews gather, and I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me about this? Ask those about it, who have heard what I said to them! Behold, these same people know what I have said.
Als er aber solches redete, gab der Diener einer, die dabeistunden, Jesu einen Backenstreich und sprach:

Solltest du dem Hohenpriester also antworten?

As he was saying this, however, one of the servants who stood by gave Jesus a blow on his cheek and said:

Is this how you answer the high priest?

Evangelist Jesus aber antwortete:

Evangelist Jesus however answered:

If I have spoken ill, then make it known that it is ill spoken; however if I spoke rightly, why do you strike me?

Jesus aber antwortete:

Jesus however answered:

If I have spoken ill, then make it known that it is ill spoken; however if I spoke rightly, why do you strike me?

Wer hat dich so geschlagen,
Mein Heil, und dich mit Plagen
So übel zugericht’?
Du bist ja nicht ein Sünder
Wie wir und unsre Kinder,
Von Missetaten weißt du nicht.

Who has struck you thus, my Savior, and with torments so evilly used you?
You are not at all a sinner like us and our children, You know nothing of transgressions.

I, I and my sins,
that can be found like the grains of sand by the sea,
these have brought you this misery that assails you, and this tormenting martyrdom.

Und Hannas sandte ihn gebunden zu dem Hohenpriester Kaiphas. Simon Petrus stund und wärmte sich, da sprachen sie zu ihm

And Hannas send him bound to the high priest Caiaphas. Simon Peter stood and warmed himself, when they said to him:

Aren’t you one of his disciples?

Er leugnete aber und sprach:

He denied it however and said:

Christus, der uns selig macht,
Kein Bös’ hat begangen,
Der ward für uns in der Nacht

Part Two
15. Chorale
Christ, who makes us blessed,
committed no evil deed,
for us he was taken in the night
like a thief,
led before godless people
and falsely accused,
scorned, shamed, and spat upon,
as the Scripture says.

16a. Evangelist
Then they led Jesus away from Caiaphas before the judgment hall, and it was early.
And they did not go into the judgment hall,
so that they would not become unclean:
rather that they could partake of Passover.
Then Pilate came outside to them and said:
Pilate
What charge do you bring against this man?

Evangelist
They answered and said to him:

16b. Chorus
If this man were not an evil-doer,
we wouldn’t have turned him over to you.

16c. Evangelist
Then Pilate said to them:
Pilate
Then take him away and judge him
after your law!

Evangelist
Then the Jews said to him:

16d. Chorus
We may not put anyone to death.
16e. Evangelist
Auf daß erfüllt würde das Wort Jesu, welches er sagte, da er deutete, welches Todes er sterben würde.
Da ging Pilatus wieder hinein in das Richthaus und rief Jesu und sprach zu ihm:

Pilatus
Bist du der Jüden König?

Evangelist
Jesus antwortete:

Jesus
Redest du das von dir selbst, oder haben’s dir andere von mir gesagt?

Evangelist
Pilatus antwortete:

Pilatus
Bin ich ein Jüde? Dein Volk und die Hohenpriester haben dich mir überantwortet; was hast du getan?

Evangelist
Jesus antwortete:

Jesus
Mein Reich ist nicht von dieser Welt; wäre mein Reich von dieser Welt, meine Diener würden darob kämpfen, daß ich den Jüden nicht überantwortet würde; aber nun ist mein Reich nicht von dannen.
17. Choral
Ach großer König, groß zu allen Zeiten,
Wie kann ich gnugsam diese Treu ausbreiten?
Keins Menschen Herze mag indes ausdenken,
Was dir zu schenken.

Ich kann's mit meinen Sinnen nicht erreichen,
Womit doch dein Erbarmen zu vergleichen.
Wie kann ich dir denn deine Liebestaten
Im Werk erstatten?
(“Herzliebster Jesus, was hast du verbrochen,” verses 8, 9)

18a. Evangelist
Da sprach Pilatus zu ihm:

Pilate
So bist du dennoch ein König?

Evangelist
Jesus antwortete:

Jesus
Du sagst’s, ich bin ein König.
Ich bin dazu geboren und in die Welt kommen,
daß ich die Wahrheit zeugen soll.
Wer aus der Wahrheit ist, der höret meine Stimme.

Evangelist
Spricht Pilatus zu ihm:

Pilate
Was ist Wahrheit?

Und da er das gesagt, ging er wieder hinaus

Pilate
Ich finde keine Schuld an ihm. Ihr habt aber eine Gewohnheit, daß ich euch einen losgebe;
wollte ihr nun, daß ich euch der Jüden König losgebe?
Evangelist
Then they all cried out together and said:

18b. Chorus
Not this one, but Barrabas!

18c. Evangelist
Barrabas however was a murderer.
Then Pilate took Jesus and scourged him.

19. Arioso B (Will Prapestsis)
Contemplate, my soul, with anxious pleasure, with bitter joy and half-constricted heart,
how for you, out of the thorns that pierce him,
the tiny 'keys of Heaven' bloom!
You can pluck much sweet fruit
from his wormwood;
therefore gaze without pause upon him!

20. Aria T (Jonas Budris)
Consider, how his blood-stained back in every aspect is like Heaven,
in which, after the watery deluge
of the flood of our sins retreated,
the most beautiful rainbow,
as God's sign of grace, was placed!

21a. Evangelist
And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and set it upon his head,
and laid a purple mantel on him,
and said:

21b. Chorus
Hail to you, dear King of the Jews!
And gave him blows on the cheek. Then Pilate went back outside and spoke to them:

Pilate

Behold, I bring him out to you, so that you recognize, that I find no fault in him.

Evangelist

When the high priests and servants saw him, they screamed and said:

21d. Chorus

Crucify, crucify!

21e. Evangelist

Pilate said to them:

Pilate

You take him away and crucify him; for I find no fault in him!

Evangelist

The Jews answered him:

21f. Chorus

We have a law, and according to that law he should die; for he has made himself into God's Son.

21g. Evangelist

When Pilate heard this, he became more afraid and went back inside to the judgment hall and said to Jesus:
Pilate
Where do you come from?

Evangelist
But Jesus gave him no answer.
Then Pilate said to him:

Pilate
You don’t speak to me? Don’t you know that I have the power to crucify you, and the power to release you?

Evangelist
Jesus answered:

Jesus
You would have no power over me,
if it were not given to you from above;
therefore, he who has delivered me to you
has the greater sin.

Evangelist
From then on Pilate considered
how he might release him.

22. Choral
Through your prison, Son of God,
must freedom come to us;
Your cell is the throne of grace,
the sanctuary of all the righteous;
for if you had not undergone servitude,
our slavery would have been eternal

23a. Evangelist
The Jews, however, screamed and said:

23b. Chorus
If you let this man go,
you are not a friend of Caesar;
for whoever makes himself a king
is against Caesar.
23c. Evangelist
Da Pilatus da Wort hörete, führte er Jesum heraus und setzte sich auf den Richtstuhl, an der Stätte, die da heißt: Hochpflaster, auf Ebräisch aber: Gabbatha. Es war aber der Rüsttag in Ostern um die sechste Stunde, und er spricht zu den Jüden:

Pilate
Sehet, das ist euer König!

Evangelist
Sie schrieen aber:

23d. Chor
Weg, weg mit dem, kreuzige ihn!

23e. Evangelist
Spricht Pilatus zu ihnen:

Pilate
Soll ich euren König kreuzigen?

Evangelist
Die Hohenpriester antworteten:

23f. Chor
Wir haben keinen König denn den Kaiser.

23g. Evangelist
Da überantwortete er ihn daß er gekreuziget würde. Sie nahmen aber Jesum und führten ihn hin. Und er trug sein Kreuz und ging hinaus zur Stätte, die da heißt Schädelstätt, welche heißt auf Ebräisch: Golgatha.

24. Arie B und Chor (Dana Whiteside)

23c. Evangelist
When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus outside and sat upon the judgment seat, at the place that is called High Pavement, in Hebrew however: Gabbatha. But it was the Sabbath-day at Passover at the sixth hour, and he said to the Jews:

Pilate
Behold, this is your King!

Evangelist
But they shrieked:

23d. Chorus
Away, away with him, crucify him!

23e. Evangelist
Pilate said to them:

Pilate
Shall I crucify your King?

Evangelist
The high priests answered:

23f. Chorus
We have no King but Caesar.

23g. Evangelist
Then he delivered him to be crucified. They took Jesus and led him away. And he carried His Cross, and went up to the place that is called the Place of the Skull, which is called in Hebrew: Golgatha.

24. Aria B and Chorus
Hurry, you tempted souls, come out of your caves of torment, hurry — where? — to Golgatha! Take up the wings of faith, fly — where? — to the Hill of the Cross, Your salvation blooms there!
25a. Evangelist
Allda kreuzigten sie ihn, und mit ihm zween andere zu beiden Seiten, Jesum aber mitten inne.
Pilatus aber schrieb eine Überschrift und satzte sie auf das Kreuz, und war geschrieben: “Jesus von Nazareth, der Jüden König.” Diese Überschrift lasen viel Jüden, denn die Stätte war nahe bei der Stadt, da Jesus gekreuzigt ist. Und es war geschrieben auf ebräische, griechische und lateinische Sprache. Da sprachen die Hohenpriester der Jüden zu Pilato:

25b. Chor
Schreibe nicht: der Jüden König, sondern daß er gesaget habe: Ich bin der Jüden König.

25c. Evangelist
Pilatus antwortet:

Pilatus
Was ich geschrieben habe, das habe ich geschrieben.

26. Choral
In meines Herzens Grunde
Dein Nam und Kreuz allein
Funkelt all Zeit und Stunde,
Drauf kann ich fröhlich sein.
Erschein mir in dem Bilde
Zu Trost in meiner Not,
Wie du, Herr Christ, so milde
Dich hast geblut’ zu Tod!
(“Valet will ich dir geben,” verse 3)

27a. Evangelist
Die Kriegsknechte aber, da sie Jesum gekreuzigt hatten, nahmen seine Kleider und machten vier Teile, einem jeglichen Kriegesknechte sein Teil, dazu auch den Rock. Der Rock aber war ungenähet, von oben an gewürket durch und durch. Da sprachen sie untereinander:

25a. Evangelist
There they crucified him, and two others with him on either side. Jesus however in the middle.
Pilate however wrote a signpost and set it upon the Cross, and there was written on it: “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.” This signpost was read by many Jews, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in the Hebrew, Greek and Latin languages. Then the high priests of the Jews said to Pilate:

25b. Chorus
Do not write: The King of the Jews, rather that he said: I am the King of the Jews.

25c. Evangelist
Pilate answered:

Pilate
What I have written, I have written.

26. Chorale
In the bottom of my heart
your name and Cross alone
sparkles at all times and hours,
for which I can be joyful.
Shine forth for me in that image
as comfort in my need,
how you, Lord Christ, so gently
bled to death

27a. Evangelist
The soldiers however, that had crucified Jesus, took his clothing and made four parts, one part for each soldier, the same also with his robe. The robe, however, had no seam, being woven from top to bottom. Then they said to each other:
27b. Chor
Lasset uns den nicht zerteilen, sondern darum losen, wes er sein soll.

27c. Evangelist
Auf daß erfült wurde die Schrift, die da sagt: “Sie haben meine Kleider unter sich geteilet und haben über meinen Rock das Los geworfen.” Solches taten die Kriegsknechte. Es stund aber bei dem Kreuze Jesu seine Mutter und seiner Mutter Schwester, Maria, Kleophas Weib, und Maria Magdalena. Da nun Jesus seine Mutter sahe und den Jünger dabei stehen, den er lieb hatte, spricht er zu seiner Mutter:

Jesus
Weib, siehe, das ist dein Sohn!

Evangelist
Darnach spricht er zu dem Jünger:

Jesus
Siehe, das ist deine Mutter!

28. Chorale
Er nahm alles wohl in acht
In der letzten Stunde,
Seine Mutter noch bedacht,
Setzt ihr ein’ Vormunde.
O Mensch, mache Richtigkeit,
Gott und Menschen liebe,
Stirb darauf ohn alles Leid,
Und dich nicht betrübe!
(“Jesu Leiden, Pein und Tod,” verse 20)

29. Evangelist
Und von Stund an nahm sie der Jünger zu sich. Darnach, als Jesus wußte, daß schon alles vollbracht war, daß die Schrift erfült wurde, spricht er:

Jesus
Mich dürstet!

27b. Chorus
Let’s not divide this, rather let’s toss for it, to see whose it will be.

27c. Evangelist
So that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says: “They have divided my clothing among themselves and have cast lots over my robe.” These things the soldiers did. However there stood by Jesus’ Cross his mother and his mother’s sister, Mary, the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. Now when Jesus saw his mother and the disciple standing near, whom he loved, he said to his mother:

Jesus
Woman, behold, this is your son!

Evangelist
Afterwards He said to the disciple:

Jesus
Behold, this is your mother!

28. Chorale
He took good care of everything in the last hour, still thinking of his mother, he provided a guardian for her. O mankind, do justice, love God and humanity, die without any sorrow, and do not be troubled!

29. Evangelist
And from that hour the disciple took her to himself. Afterwards, when Jesus knew that everything was already accomplished, so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he said:

Jesus
I thirst!
Evangelist
Da stund ein Gefäße voll Essigs.
Sie füllten aber einen Schwamm mit Essig und legten ihn um einen Isopen,
und heilten es ihm dar zum Munde.
Da nun Jesus den Essig genommen hatte, sprach er.

Jesus
Es ist vollbracht!

30. Arie A (Carrie Cheron)
Es ist vollbracht!
O Trost vor die gekränkten Seelen!
Die Trauernacht
Läßt nun die letzte Stunde zählen.
Der Held aus Juda siegt mit Macht
Und schließt den Kampf.
Es ist vollbracht!

31. Evangelist
Und neiget das Haupt und verschied.

32. Arie B und Chor (David McFerrin)
Mein teurer Heiland, laß dich fragen,
Da du nunmehr ans Kreuz geschlagen
Und selbst gesagt: Es ist vollbracht,
Bin ich vom Sterben frei gemacht?
Kann ich durch deine Pein und Sterben
Das Himmelreich ererben?
Ist aller Welt Erlösung da?
Du kannst vor Schmerzen zwar nichts sagen;
Doch neigst du das Haupt
Und sprichst stillschweigend: ja.

Jesu, der du warest tot,
Lebtest nun ohn Ende,
In der letzten Todesnot
Nirgend mich hinwende
Als zu dir, der mich versühnt,
O du lieber Herre!
Gib mir nur, was du verdient,
Mehr ich nicht begehre!

("Jesu Leiden, Pein und Tod," last verse)

Evangelist
There was a vessel full of vinegar.
They filled a sponge with vinegar
and placed it on a hyssop,
and held it directly to his mouth.
Now when Jesus had taken the vinegar,
he said.

Jesus
It is finished!

30. Aria A
It is finished!
O comfort for the ailing soul!
The night of sorrow
now measures out its last hour.
The hero out of Judah conquers with might
and concludes the battle.
It is finished!

31. Evangelist
And bowed his head and departed.

32. Aria B and Chorus
My precious Savior, let me ask,
Now that you have been nailed to the Cross and have said yourself: It is finished,
Am I made free from death?
Can I, through your pain and death inherit the kingdom of heaven?
Has the redemption of the whole world arriged?
You cannot say a single thing out of pain;
yet you bow your head and say silently: yes.

Jesus, you, who were dead,
live now unendingly,
in the last pangs of death
I will turn nowhere else
but to you, who has absolved me,
O beloved Lord!
Only give me what you earned,
more I do not desire!
33. Evangelist
Und siehe da, der Vorhang im Tempel
zeriß in zwei Stück von oben an bis unten aus.
Und die Erde erbebte, und die Felsen zerrissen, und die Gräber täten sich auf,
und stunden auf viel Leiber der Heiligen.
(Matthew 27:51-52)

34. Arioso T (Jonas Budris)
Mein Herz, in dem die ganze Welt
Bei Jesu Leiden gleichfalls leidet,
Die Sonne sich in Trauer kleidet,
Der Vorhang reißt, der Fels zerfällt,
Die Erde bebt, die Gräber spalten,
Weil sie den Schöpfer sehn erkalten,
Was willst du deines Ortes tun?

35. Aria S (Carley DeFranco)
Zerfleiße, mein Herze, in Fluten der Zähren
Dem Höchsten zu Ehren!
Erzähle der Welt und dem Himmel die Not:
Dein Jesus ist tot!

36. Evangelist
Die Jüden aber, dieweil es der Rüsttag war, daß nicht die Leichname am Kreuze blieben den Sabbat über (denn desselbigen Sabbats Tag war sehr groß), baten sie Pilatum, daß ihre Beine gebrochen und sie abgenommen würden. Da kamen die Kriegsknechte und brachen dem ersten die Beine und dem andern, der mit ihm gekreuziget
war. Als sie aber zu Jesu kamen, da sie sahen, dass er schon gestorben war, brachen sie ihm die Beine nicht; sondern der Kriegsknechte einer eröffnete seine Seite mit einem Speer, und alsobald ging Blut und Wasser heraus. Und der das gesehen hat, der hat es bezeugt, und sein Zeugnis ist wahr, und derselbige weiß, daß er die Wahrheit saget, auf daß ihr glaubet. Denn solches ist geschehen, auf daß die Schrift erfüllt würde:
“Ihr sollet ihm kein Bein zerbrechen.” Und abermal spricht eine andere Schrift: “Sie werden sehen, in welchen sie gestochen haben.”

33. Evangelist
And behold, the curtain in the temple was torn in two pieces from top to bottom.
And the earth shook, and the cliffs were rent,
and the graves opened up,
and many bodies of saints arose.

34. Arioso T
My heart — while the entire world with Jesus’ suffering likewise suffers;
the sun drapes itself in mourning,
the curtain is rent, the crag crumbles,
the earth trembles, the graves split open,
since they behold the Creator growing cold;
— how shall you react from your depths?

35. Aria S
Dissolve, my heart, in floods of tears
to honor the Highest!
Tell the world and heaven the anguish:
Your Jesus is dead!

36. Evangelist
The Jews however, since it was the Sabbath day, so that the corpses would not remain on their crosses over the Sabbath (for this particular Sabbath day was very great), asked Pilate for their bones to be broken and that they be taken away. So the soldiers came and broke the bones of the first and the other one, who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his bones; instead one of the soldiers opened his side with a spear; and immediately blood and water came out. And he that saw this, bore witness to it, and his testimony is true, and this same knows that he speaks the truth so that you believe. For all this has happened in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled: “You shall break none of his bones.” And in addition another Scripture says: “They will behold what they have pierced.”
37. Choral
O hilf, Christe, Gottes Sohn,
Durch dein bitter Leiden,
Daß wir dir stets untertan
All Untugend meiden,
Deinen Tod und sein Ursach
Fruchtbarlich bedenken,
Dafür, wiewohl arm und schwach, Dir Dankopfer schenken!
("Christus, der uns selig macht,“ verse 8)

38. Evangelist

39. Chor
Ruht wohl, ihr heiligen Gebeine,
Die ich nun weiter nicht beweine,
Ruht wohl und bringt auch mich zur Ruh!
Das Grab, so euch bestimmet ist
Und ferner keine Not umschließt,
Macht mir den Himmel auf und schließt die Hölle zu.
40. Choral
Ach Herr, lass dein lieb Engelein
Am letzten End die Seele mein
In Abrahams Schoß tragen,
Den Leib in sein Schlafkämmerlein
Gar sanft ohn eigne
Qual und Pein
Ruhn bis am jüngsten Tage!
Alsdenn vom Tod erwecke mich,
Dass meine Augen sehen dich
In aller Freud, o Gottes Sohn,
Mein Heiland und Genadenthron!
Herr Jesu Christ, erhöre mich,
Ich will dich preisen ewiglich!
("Herzlich lieb hab ich dich, o Herr," verse 3)

40. Chorale
Ah, Lord, let your dear little angel,
at my final end, take my soul
to Abraham's bosom.
Let my body, in its little sleeping chamber, absolutely softly, without any anguish or pain,
rest until the last day!
At that day wake me from death,
so that my eyes may see you
in all joy, O Son of God,
my Savior and Throne of grace!
Lord Jesus Christ, hear me,
I will praise you eternally!

A two-time fellow of the Tanglewood Music Center, he made his Tanglewood debut as The Traveler in Curlew River in collaboration with the Mark Morris Dance Group. Since then, he has been fortunate to have sung a wide variety of early, contemporary and operatic repertoire with many of the region’s finest ensembles. He was a 2017-2018 Lorraine Hunt-Lieberson Fellow with Emmanuel Music and has performed regularly with the ensemble for the past six seasons, with highlights including John Harbison’s Fifth Symphony, Bach’s Christmas Oratorio, St. Matthew, St. John, and St. Mark Passions, as well as countless appearances as part of Emmanuel Music’s weekend Bach Cantata Series. Through its performing, teaching, mentoring, and scholarly activities, Emmanuel Music occupies a unique niche: a living laboratory for the music of J. S. Bach. Emmanuel Music finds new and creative ways for audiences and musicians to engage with the artistic, spiritual, and humanistic aspects of the music of J. S. Bach, the cornerstone of our musical output for our first fifty years.

We seek to make Bach's music deeply relevant to our current lives, including highlighting the connections between Bach and artists that he influenced, especially creative voices that have been marginalized in our society.

Building on the symbiotic partnership between an arts nonprofit and an intellectually curious and open-minded religious community, Emmanuel Music further embraces Bach’s sacred music, especially his cantatas, as opportunities to explore the transcendent aspects of our shared human experience.

By embracing a new mission and strategic plan in March 2021, Emmanuel Music asserts its role as an essential musical, humanistic, intellectual force for participatory engagement in its local community, and around the world through its online programming.

The strategic planning process has led us to affirm our dedication to building our identity around the creative output of a single composer. This affirmation is especially significant in 2021 when many arts organizations are looking to re-think their identity, including dis-engaging from over-reliance on the historic cultural influence of White European men.

Our essence, and what makes us unique amongst our peers, is the richness and depth that the musicians--and, by extension, the audiences--gain through the cycle of learning, re-learning, and experiencing performances of Bach’s works. This includes exploring the themes of his sacred works that are broadly relatable, rather than uniquely Lutheran. According to Ensemble member Pamela Dellal, the themes that Bach explores, especially his sacred cantatas, are “so deeply embedded in all of us that you don’t have to believe one ideology in order to understand the profundity of what he’s writing.” As one Board member recently noted, “We’re always struggling. Bach provides a way of dealing with life’s struggles.”

Your Impact at Emmanuel Music

Since our founding in 1970, our activities have been made possible, largely, by philanthropic gifts from many generous individuals across our community. We depend on your financial support to, as our mission statement directs us, "engage with audiences and musicians to explore the enduring questions of our shared human experience."

It is common for performing arts organizations’ earned revenue to cover only a fraction of their annual expenses. Accordingly, at Emmanuel Music, this season’s budget of $1.1 million is mostly raised from individual donations (82%), and the largest share of the funding we receive is dedicated to compensating our musicians and artistic personnel (47%).

Through our performing, teaching, mentoring, and scholarly activities, we occupy a unique niche: a living laboratory for the music of J. S. Bach. We seek to make Bach’s music deeply relevant to our current lives, including highlighting the connections between Bach and artists that he influenced, especially creative voices that have been marginalized in our society.

By embracing a new mission and strategic plan in 2021, we are asserting our role as an essential musical, humanistic, intellectual force for participatory engagement in its local community, and around the world through its online programming.

Thank you for your support for Emmanuel Music. If you would like more information about our ambitions for the future, please contact our Director of Development & Engagement at (617) 536-3356 or heath@emmanuelmusic.org.
