

HCV-HCSA Assessor Training Course

Integrated High Conservation Value-High Carbon Stock Approach assessments are participatory processes for identifying social and environmental values which need to be conserved in production landscapes.

Who should take this course?

Sustainability professionals, environmental and social consultants or project managers that would like to lead HCV-HCSA assessments.

Course objective

Ensure participants obtain an adequate level of understanding of Assessor Licensing Scheme procedures and good practice needed to competently lead an integrated HCV-HCSA assessment.

Cost

USD $600

Requirements

.Valid email address and access to a personal computer, tablet or mobile device with Internet access. Although not required, the participants may already be familiar with the HCV and HCS Approaches.

Format

- Language: English
- Format: Online, self-paced
- Number of modules: 7
- Duration: 4 weeks
- Start date: May 1, 2023
- Live sessions: May 23-26, 2023
- Learning platform: Canvas & Zoom

