

Carpus Paw Measurement Form

LEFT or RIGHT

Please circle one

 Measure in centimeters only *****

Pet Name: _____ Breed _____

Age _____ lbs. _____

ORTHOPETS®

1. Just below elbow
circumference _____ cm
Just below olecranon include humeral epicondyles

2. Carpus
Circumference _____ cm
radiocarpal joint, including accessory carpal pad

3. Elbow to carpus _____ cm lateral humeral epicondyle lateral styloid of ulna

4. Carpus to Paw _____ cm
lateral styloid of ulna
apex of 5th metacarpal head

- A: Olecranon
B: Humeral Epicondyle
C: Styloid of Ulna
D: 5th Metacarpal Head

5. Length from caudal most aspect of metacarpal pad to end of toenails _____ cm
please note if excessively long nails

6. Can the carpus be placed at an angle of 180°? Y/N

7. Can the metacarpal phalangeal joint be comfortably placed in a normal standing paw angle? Y/N

If no, please specify the angle that you can passively and comfortably place the MCP-J in (i.e., 135°):

8. Hyperextension cases:
What is the area of instability? (See F, G, H diagram) _____

F: Antebrachial/carpal
G: Intercarpal
H: Intercarpal/metacarpal

9. What is the angle of weight bearing hyperextension? _____
If possible, what is the weight bearing carpus angle of the "good" leg? _____

10. Is there a dewclaw? Y/N
11. Please email weight bearing pictures from the side and front of both front limbs, ground level to info@orthopets.com

12. Please provide a weight bearing paw tracing of both paws on the back of this form