BOUNTY HUNTERS

Late 2026: Due to the insurmountable pressures of The Data Wars, online activity is illegal and punishable by death - leading to a highly secretive and underground network of hackers who go by the code name: 'Bounty Hunters'.

This is your chance to be part of the survival of the human race of the near-future - here in the present. The Simpl3r: Bounty Hunters need you, we all need you, to heed the call - and to take action now.

Evolve, plug in, switch on, join the hunt and stake your claim on the future - now.

The Simpl3r: Bounty Hunters are utility packed deflationary NFTs available on the Solana network.

- Stake a Bounty Hunter to earn Credits
- Credits are the backbone of the Simpl3r ecosystem
- Credits can be used with everything from subsidising fees on the marketplace to paying for subscriptions to the premium version. More utility info to come soon
- The Simpl3r treasury will buy back and burn Bounty Hunters from the open market
- Voting rights to the DAO
- Join an amazing like minded community
- Strong, Experienced and Fully Doxxed Team

Bounty Referrals
